Emily Ellet Bio

Emily Ellet is a New York City-based, SAG/AFTRA actor, singer, and audiobook narrator and the winner of the 2017 MetroStar Talent Challenge cabaret competition at the Metropolitan Room in New York City.

Emily was also the original Cat in the critically acclaimed production of Stephen Schwartz's "Magic To Do" on the Ruby Princess cruise ship. She has appeared off-Broadway and regionally with such companies as Reduxion Theatre Company, Vital Theatre Company, Oklahoma City Theatre Company, and the Oklahoma City Philharmonic and has toured with her own show, "Shining, Shimmering, Splendid!". She has studied with Craig Carnelia, DB Bonds, Matt Farnsworth, and Sally Wilfert. She is also a prolific audiobook narrator, with more than 150 titles recorded.

Emily is a proud member of P.E.O., a philanthropic educational organization providing scholarships to enable women across the world to pursue their educational goals.

Press Quotes:

"Throughout the MetroStar competition, Ellet impressed us with her intelligent and imaginatively conceived renditions. Beyond the loveliness of her voice, what distinguishes her work is the sensitivity of her interpretations—her ability to convey the feelings underlying a lyric by means of acting choices that seem like unguarded internal expression, not an actor's artful contrivance. On top of that, she has the chops to deliver the big notes when her interpretation calls for it."

- Roy Sander (Review Editor, BistroAwards.com, and Chairman of the Judges, MetroStar Talent Challenge)